BARTLETT MUST PUSTLE ALIMONY

Engineer Given, Afternoon in Which to Produce the Mazonia or Go to Jail.

LIVELY DIVORCE MATINEE

PLASTERER GETS PLASTERED AT REGULAR INTERVALS.

Edward D. Bartlett was summoned to the divorce court yesterday to show cause why he should not be punished for contempt in his failure to pay his wife, May Bartlett, alimony of $25 a month. The husband showed that he had paid three months' alimony out of the five. He is an engineer on the Rio Grande, and earns a good salary. He was given the afternoon in which to raise the $75 or go to jail.

A Hard Combination.
Stomach trouble, a hold-up and lack of employment prevented Milton H. Tate from paying his wife, Elizabeth Tate, $25 a month alimony. Tate said that the only employment he had had was driving a hack in Garfield for his father, and that he really didn't have the money to pay the alimony. The hold-up man took a large part of his savings away from him, and his stomach trouble prevented him from earning money. He was purged of contempt temporarily.

Plasterer and Drunkard.
Hildegarde Virginia Holland, married John W. Holland in Brigham City Oct. 25, 1904. He is an habitual drunkard and a plasterer, the two being linked in inverse ratio. When he is a plasterer he makes $5 a day, and when he is a drunkard he spends $5 a day and more if he can get it. There are four children whose maintenance the wife was granted $50 a month. The group of divorce was extreme cruelty, the beatings recited being almost too numerous to mention. Mrs. Holland said that she could get along all right herself by taking in washing, but that she could not support and rear the children without assistance. A divorce was granted.

Mrs. Tatowsky Gets Decree.

Carrie M. Tatowsky was granted a divorce from Henry Tatowsky. They were married June 1, 1896, and the husband deserted the wife on August 27 of this year. The wife was granted as alimony the interest on $400 paid on a piece of property at West Temple and Tenth South streets, also the custody of a twenty-month-old child.

David Vance Ditched.
Millie Vance proved that David A. Vance is a drunkard; that he choked and kicked her; and one night would have killed her if he had not knelt on the baby, whereupon the baby cried and saved her life. They were married Sept. 15, 1898. When her father was dying he came home drunk and abused the dying man. She was restored her maiden name of Kilpatrick and given the custody of the child.

Decree Is Denied.

The case of Roy Yeager against Margaret Yeager was thrown out of court. The plaintiff said the wife refused to live with him; that she had a violent temper; that one night she took the baby and slammed it across the room against the opposite wall, that she had visited a saloon with David Harwood. The court did not see that the evidence justified the granting of a divorce, so a decree was denied.

Supported by Her Father.

Nellie Peterson was granted a divorce from Edwin Peterson. For three years after their marriage he did not support her, and she and her little baby had to go to her father's house for support. She was granted the custody of her child, $25 a month alimony, and the restoration of the maiden name of McDonald.

New Suit Started.

A suit was instituted in the district court for divorce yesterday by Christine Larsen against Jorgen Peter Larsen, on the ground of non-support. There is a daughter, six years old, whose custody the plaintiff asks. They were married in Denmark in 1898.

Mrs. McRaney's Experience.

Mrs. M. McRaney, Prentiss, Miss., writes: "I was confined to my bed for three months with kidney and bladder trouble, and was treated by two physicians but failed to get relief. No human tongue can tell how I suffered, and I had given up hope of ever getting well until I began taking Foley's Kidney Remedy. After taking two bottles I felt like a new person, and feel it my duty to tell suffering women what Foley's Kidney Remedy did for me." F. J. Hill Drug Co.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

New Attraction at the Louvre.

The celebrated Mertz Columbia orchestra is now playing at the Louvre during the lunch hour, and from 5 o'clock on in the evening.

This is the orchestra for which the Louvre management has been negotiating for some weeks past. Mr. Wille, the proprietor, having made a trip to the east especially to secure this excellent music.

He did so with the idea, as usual, of providing Salt Lake with the best orchestra obtainable.

In connection with the orchestra Miss Sutherland and Miss Thibault, the two well known singers, have been engaged to render selections every evening. Such a combination of high-class musical features will make the Louvre Rathskeller more popular than ever.
